

Black Leaders Organizing for Communities: Endorses Rebecca Kiefer in race for Milwaukee County Circuit Court Judge

Posted on Wednesday, Feb 26, 2020

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

MILWAUKEE – Rebecca Kiefer, candidate for Milwaukee County Circuit Court Judge, Branch 29, announced she has received the endorsement of Black Leaders Organizing for Communities (BLOC). BLOC is a nonprofit organization working to ensure a high quality of life for members of the Black community in Milwaukee and throughout Wisconsin.

“Rebecca Kiefer has worked with many victims of trauma and will be a judge that sees all people as whole people, not just their worst moments,” said Rick Banks, Political Director of BLOC. “That’s a mindset that we need on the bench.”

“I am deeply concerned with keeping our community safe, and I’m also insistent on issues of equality and equity,” Kiefer said. “I’m incredibly honored to have earned the endorsement of BLOC, and look forward to finding solutions on how to make our community stronger, together.”

The general election is Tuesday, April 7. Rebecca Kiefer is the only woman candidate running in a contested election for the Milwaukee County Circuit Court.

A full list of endorsements can be found at rebeccakieferforjudge.com/-endorsements. More information can be found on the web at KieferForJudge.com and on social media at @kieferforjudge.