(Green Bay, WI) Republican Party of Brown County Chairman James Fitzgerald shares the disappointment with his follow voters in the City of Green Bay. “I reached out to Mayor Genrich on March 30, imploring him to apply all the necessary resources to run a smooth election on April 7”, and heard nothing. Today, we see the results of his inaction.

While other large municipalities, including Madison, had no difficulties processing the vote today, Green Bay, fell short leaving long lines and frustrated voters.” Mayor Genrich’s refusal to use trained National Guard’s men and women exhibited a classic failure in judgement and leadership. We applaud all the resilient poll workers who persevered the integrity of the ballot box.
