(Hudson, WI) – Jason Church, candidate for Congress in Wisconsin’s 7th Congressional District, released new TV and radio ads today. They will run in every media market in the district.

In both ads, Mr. Church discusses how he will work with President Trump to create jobs and secure our borders. He points to the need for political outsiders in Washington to join the President in the fight to do what’s right on behalf of the American people.

“Washington, D.C. doesn’t need another career politician,” said Jason Church. “We need representatives who are willing to make the tough decisions. President Trump needs a new generation of conservative leaders who will work with him to keep our economy robust, borders safe, and military strong.”
