(Hudson, WI) – Church for Wisconsin raised more than $652,000 in the race for Wisconsin’s 7th Congressional District. A retired Army Captain who has never run for political office before, Church received more than 5,000 donations. The vast majority of contributions were under $50.

“This is a critical special election in the most important presidential battleground state in the country and voters recognize we need the strongest possible candidate in every district to make sure Republican allies of President Trump defeat Democrats and Nancy Pelosi,” said Jason Church. “I am incredibly grateful for all the support my campaign has received. Our grassroots donors and supporters know that we need to send a fighter to Washington to stand with President Trump.”
