(Green Lake, WI) – Alex Dallman, Republican candidate for the 41st Assembly District, has earned the endorsements of members of our law enforcement community across the 41st State Assembly District, including Sheriff Mark Podoll of Green Lake County, Sheriff Brent York of Adams County, Sheriff Roger Brandner of Columbia County, District Attorney Andrew Christenson of Green Lake County, former Markesan Police Chief Steve Braun (43 years law enforcement), former Ripon Police Captain Chris Stieber (31 years law enforcement), and former Marquette County Sheriff's Deputy Jim Sanfilippo (31 years law enforcement).

“From the time I personally met with Alex Dallman I found him to be a well-qualified, fair-minded, and respected community advocate. Alex supports law enforcement officers and has small town values. He’s the kind of representative we need to represent the citizens of the 41st State Assembly District.” said Adams County Sheriff, Brent York.

“Alex Dallman is an active community member who keeps his finger on the pulse of the latest developments of important issues. He will bring this awareness along with his legislative experience to the State Assembly. I count on Alex to be a thoughtful, responsive, and candid legislator for the 41st Assembly District, and I endorse his candidacy” said Green Lake County District Attorney Andrew Christenson

The Republican primary election is set for August 11th.
