Oconomowoc – Representative Barbara Dittrich (R – Oconomowoc) issued the following statement upon her re-election to serve as the representative for the 38 th Assembly District:

“I am incredibly grateful for all the support, love, prayers, and votes to carry us through this election cycle and to a victory tonight! The left tried to steal this election away from the residents of this district by dumping an incredible amount of money into this race. However, the people spoke definitively taking a stand to choose life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness over socialism and government overreach.

“This victory is not just a victory for me, but a victory for the people of the great 38 th . In my first term, I promised to be open to discussion and new ideas, listening to constituents from around the entire district. I pledge to continue these practices, and work to move our state forward as we tackle the challenges facing our state.

“Finally, I would like to thank my husband, Steve and my 3 children for their unflinching, undying support during this campaign. But most of all, I would like to give thanks and glory to God. It was His prompting that caused me to run for public office in the first place, and He guides my every decision as I work diligently to serve the good people of the 38 th Assembly District and this state.”
