

DWD says Wisconsin missed out on $25 million in federal funding due to legislative inaction

Posted on Friday, May 8, 2020

Today's Midday podcast covers the Department of Workforce Development report that the state missed out on federal funding to cover unemployment claims because the GOP-led Legislature took too long to approve a COVID-19 bill suspending a one-week waiting period before those who lose their jobs can receive a check.