“The 3rd District needs a representative who knows our communities, will listen to our concerns and protect our constitutional rights. We already know we can’t count on Ron Kind to vote in our best interests, but we need a candidate who will motivate voters like never before to unseat him. Jessi’s drive has consistently impressed me, and I know she will bring the same high level of dedication and energy to serving the people of the Chippewa Valley. Jessi has forged meaningful relationships with local leaders, state legislators and sparked new grassroots enthusiasm, which is what sets her candidacy apart. Her strong relationships in the district will not only help her retire 24-year incumbent Ron Kind, they will help inform her problem-solving and decision-making as a true representative for us in Congress.”

Rep. Rob Summerfield
Wisconsin’s 67th District

Representative Rob Summerfield has served Wisconsin’s 67th District in the State Assembly since 2016. He was born and raised in Bloomer, WI. Rob is a small business owner and is a married with three daughters. Rob is active in his community and is an member of Good Shepard Lutheran Church.

“Rep. Summerfield’s endorsement is incredibly humbling. When he sets his mind to change, it gets done. Within a short time in office, he became a champion for rural Wisconsin and small business development, having positive impacts statewide. He has deep connections with the communities he serves, which I hope to share with him as their representative soon. I’m honored by his confidence in me to serve the people of Wisconsin’s 3rd District and bring necessary changes to Washington, D.C.”
