“Jessi’s commitment to community outreach, specifically to elected officials and law enforcement, gives me confidence that she will be a strong representative of Wisconsin’s 3rd District in Congress. Her lifelong connections to Grant County come through in her knowledge of our communities, and her professional experience working with law enforcement in local government has given her sharp insights into the issues we face. Jessi is a principled conservative that will uphold the Constitution and protect the 2nd Amendment while fighting for the issues that matter to rural communities. With enthusiasm, I support her candidacy for Congress.”

Nate Dreckman
Grant County Sheriff

Sheriff Nate Dreckman is a 25-year veteran of the Grant County Sheriff’s Office. He was first appointed as Grant County Sheriff by Governor Walker upon Sheriff Govier’s retirement in 2012. Sheriff Dreckman has since been elected to two four-year terms as sheriff. His focus in office has been to combat the opioid and methamphetamine epidemic, maintain transparency and develop inter-agency relationships to bring the best services to the citizens of Grant County.

“I’m honored to receive the endorsement of a faithful servant for the people of Grant County, Sheriff Dreckman. He is motivated to collaborate and always looks for ways to improve constituent services and deliver maximum impact with the programs he oversees. I’m grateful for all his hard work to keep our communities safe and for his trust in me to advocate for him and the people of Grant County in Congress.”
