“I am honored to endorse Jessi Ebben to represent Wisconsin’s 3rd Congressional District. It is so apparent that we need a ‘mover and a shaker’ that won’t just go along to get along. She is an independent-minded conservative that will not sit back during difficult times and just nod her head. She will push hard to help the people of her district and the state of Wisconsin,” stated Bernier.

Kathleen “Kathy” Bernier is a current state senator, representing Wisconsin’s 23rd State Senate District.

Bernier is the first state-elected official to endorse a candidate in the race to represent Wisconsin’s 3rd Congressional District. The seat is currently held by 24-year Democrat incumbent, Congressman Ron Kind.

“It is an absolute honor to be endorsed by Senator Kathy Bernier. She works diligently and fights fiercely each day to represent her constituents, and I’m humbled by her confidence in me to bring her voice and all the voices of Wisconsin’s Third District to Congress,” said Ebben.
