"I am honored to endorse Jessi Ebben to represent the 3rd Congressional District. Her genuineness and independent conservative mindset are exactly what we need in Washington, D.C. I have always believed that we do not need more politicians, but instead public servants who understand servant leadership. I believe Jessi understands the difference and is up for the challenge of fighting against the swamp of D.C. This is what I believe makes her a genuinely great candidate. I don't endorse often, but when I do, I save it for the people that inspire me and that I believe will fight the good fight! I endorse Jessi Ebben!"

Adam Fischer
Wood County Supervisor

Adam Fischer owns and operates his own business and serves on the Wood County Board of Supervisors. He was first appointed to the Board to replace his predecessor in September of 2016 and won his first election in 2018. He has since been reelected and has served as the Vice-Chair of the Wood County Board of Supervisors since April of this year. He has a passion for representing the great people of Wood County.

"I'm humbled to have Adam Fischer's endorsement and his trust to represent the great people of Wood County. Adam holds strong family and community values, thinking about what is best for his community in all that he does. He knows what issues matter most to the people he serves and gives them the attention and action they deserve. I'm grateful for his endorsement and look forward to working with him to meet the needs of Wisconsin's 3rd District in Washington, D.C."
