

Elections Commission refers cases of suspected cross-state voting to DAs

Posted on Wednesday, Mar 11, 2020

The Wisconsin Elections Commission says it referred 43 cases of suspected cross-state voting to DAs in 19 Wisconsin counties stemming from the November 2018 election. Stephanie Hoff and Pat Poblete discuss how the agency identified those cases and how it relates to the lawsuit seeking to strike roughly 200,000 suspected movers from voting rolls.