

Elections Commission still searching for answers on tubs of absentee ballots from April 7 election

Posted on Tuesday, May 19, 2020

Today's Midday podcast covers a report that shows state officials are still unsure why some 1,600 absentee ballots from voters in the Fox Valley ended up in a Milwaukee postal sorting facility or why some Oshkosh voters never received the ballots they'd requested for the April 7 election.