

Elections Commission votes to make absentee ballots easier to track

Posted on Monday, Apr 20, 2020

The state Elections Commission voted unanimously to move toward adding intelligent barcodes to absentee ballots so they can be better tracked in future elections after a record number were cast this spring. Stephanie Hoff and Pat Poblete discuss the move and data the commission released ahead of the meeting on absentee ballots received and rejected.