

Evers administration places new restrictions on indoor public gatherings to fight COVID

Posted on Wednesday, Oct 7, 2020

Today's Midday podcast covers Gov. Tony Evers' administration issuing a new order limiting indoor public gatherings to 25 percent of a room's capacity, placing new restrictions on bars, restaurants and other private businesses as the state has become one of the nation's hotspots for COVID-19 cases.