

Evers calls for legislative action on bill overhauling police policies on deadly force

Posted on Wednesday, Jun 3, 2020

Today's Midday podcast covers Gov. Tony Evers calling on state lawmakers to quickly pass legislation that would require law enforcement agencies to adopt new policies stating deadly force only be used as a last resort.