

Evers cutting agency budgets to deal with revenue loss from COVID-19

Posted on Wednesday, Apr 29, 2020

Today's Midday podcast covers the Evers administration's decision to immediately cut executive branch agency budgets 5 percent in the current fiscal year to help deal with the looming state revenue loss due to COVID-19.