

Evers doesn't envision 'grand bargain' with GOP on new restrictions to stem COVID-19

Posted on Monday, May 18, 2020

Today's Midday podcast covers Gov. Tony Evers saying on the "UpFront" program he doesn't envision a "grand bargain" with Republican legislative leaders after they won a lawsuit striking down his administration's extended COVID-19 stay-at-home order.