

Evers moves back in-person voting for spring election to June 9

Posted on Monday, Apr 6, 2020

Today's Midday podcast covers Gov. Tony Evers' executive order pushing back in-person voting to June 9 to avoid exposing voters and poll workers to COVID-19. Stephanie Hoff and Pat Poblete discuss details from the order, Evers' previous positions on the election and reaction from GOP lawmakers.