

Evers recommends federal judge extend absentee ballot deadlines

Posted on Wednesday, Apr 1, 2020

In today's Midday Podcast, Gov. Tony Evers is recommending a federal judge order Wisconsin to conduct the April 7 election largely by mail while moving back deadlines for voters to request absentee ballots, as well as for clerks to receive and process them. Stephanie Hoff and Pat Poblete discuss Evers' suggestions and the latest from the federal court case challenging the upcoming election.
