

Evers slams Trump lawsuit as ‘anti-democratic’ in latest federal filing

Posted on Wednesday, Dec 9, 2020

Today’s Midday podcast covers Gov. Tony Evers arguing President Trump’s attempt to throw out millions of votes because officials allegedly didn’t follow state law in administering the election is “not merely implausible, it is profoundly anti-democratic and contrary to the rule of law.”