

Evers turns to lawmakers in the fight against COVID-19

Posted on Wednesday, Mar 18, 2020

Gov. Tony Evers is calling for lawmakers to immediately repeal a one-week delay in collecting unemployment benefits and his administration is asking agencies for input on a possible legislative package in response to the pandemic. Stephanie Hoff and Pat Poblete discuss the latest coronavirus developments in the Capitol and when the state Senate intends to meet.