WISCONSIN, JANUARY— Today, Ed Fallon said:

“We are proud to announce today that the Fallon for Justice campaign has the resources to give the voters a real choice on February 18. We are reporting approximately $150,000 in year to date donations from voters who are ready to elect a different kind of Justice and who want to see a voice for working families on the Wisconsin Supreme Court. As we enter the new year, the election is entering a new phase, and voters are getting behind my campaign.”

Ed Fallon is a constitutional law scholar who has devoted over 27 years of his life to the law and ensuring that the Wisconsin legal system works for all Wisconsinites. He has taught over 2,300 Wisconsin lawyers including judges and elected officials. Ed will be the first Latino to serve on our state’s highest court and will bring expertise in corporate and criminal law to the Wisconsin Supreme Court. His mother was a Mexican immigrant and his father was a teacher, he comes from a working class family and has two children who attended Yale University and the American University School of International Service. Ed is running for Wisconsin Supreme Court to preserve the independence of the judiciary and defend our rights to equal treatment under the law and self-governance.

The primary election for the Supreme Court will be held February 18, 2020.
