

Federal appeals court ruling leaves absentee ballot deadline unchanged

Posted on Friday, Oct 9, 2020

Today's Midday podcast covers Wisconsin voters again facing an Election Day deadline to return their absentee ballots after a split federal appeals court today put on hold a ruling that had extended it by six days.