

Hibsch campaign: Announces candidacy for representative to the Wisconsin State Assembly 64th District

Posted on Thursday, Apr 16, 2020

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Kenosha, WI — Ed Hibsch has announced his candidacy for Representative to the Wisconsin State Assembly – 64 th district in the upcoming Fall election, November 3, 2020, as a Republican.

“I believe my wealth of life experience and attention to constituents’ concerns makes me an ideal candidate for the assembly” said Ed Hibsch. “I enjoy connecting with constituents on a personal level and take their personal concerns to heart. Most people just want to be heard and feel that they have a voice for them in state government”.

Ed Hibsch and his wife Janet Hibsch live in Somers, WI. Ed is a local entrepreneur as the owner/operator of EWH Transportation, LLC; a luxury ride service in the Kenosha/Racine area, providing personal transportation to airports and special events. Ed’s previous work experience is as a statistical research analyst in several different industries. Educationally, Ed earned a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and has completed extensive Graduate coursework in Experimental Psychology. Janet, also an entrepreneur, is a Licensed Acupuncturist and owner of Lakeview Acupuncture, providing services to clients from her office within Family Care Chiropractic in Racine.

Ed Hibsch has previously run for Kenosha County Supervisor on two different occasions, but this is his first experience running for a state government position.

Want to make a difference? Join our campaign team! Follow “Ed Hibsich for State Assembly” on social media.