

In Eau Claire, Pence praises pre-COVID economy, promises conservative Supreme Court pick

Posted on Friday, Sep 25, 2020

Today's Midday podcast covers Vice President Mike Pence's ninth Wisconsin visit this year touting the strength of the U.S. economy during Donald Trump's first three years as president and pledging a "principled, conservative woman" will be picked for a U.S. Supreme Court vacancy.