MILWAUKEE – Today, former State Senator and Milwaukee County Child Support Services Director Jim Sullivan announces his endorsement of State Rep. David Crowley to be the next Milwaukee County Executive.

“David Crowley doesn’t come into this race thinking that he has all of the answers, he is ready to listen to people from all over Milwaukee County to find the best solutions,” said Sullivan. “His track record of working with people of all different backgrounds and ideologies make him the best choice to be able to secure a fair deal for Milwaukee County from the state legislature. I’m happy to support David Crowley to be the next County Executive.”

“The work Jim has been able to do over the last decade with Milwaukee County Child Support Services has been remarkable. We need more leaders like him at the county level to make sure that we are providing the best possible services to Milwaukee County residents,” said Rep. Crowley. “It’s an honor to have Jim’s support and I look forward to building on the successes that he and his department have had.”

Representative Crowley currently serves Wisconsin’s 17th Assembly District, representing almost 60,000 residents in the State Legislature. As a member of the State Assembly, David sits on the Energy and Utilities, State Affairs, Workforce Development, and Transportation Committees and is the ranking member on the Criminal Justice and Public Safety Committee. He is the Chair of the Milwaukee Delegation, the Chair of the Black Caucus, and the Co-Chair of the Black and Latino Caucus. He also serves as a member of the Wisconsin Housing and Economic Development Authority (WHEDA) Board of Directors.

Representative Crowley lives in Milwaukee with his wife, Ericka, and their three young children.

The non-partisan Primary election will be held tomorrow, Tuesday, February 18. The General election will be on Tuesday, April 7. For more information about David Crowley and his campaign visit www.crowleyformke.com.
