MILWAUKEE — Candidate for the Wisconsin Supreme Court Judge Jill Karofsky released the following statement on campaign preparations related to COVID-19:

“My team and I have been monitoring the news closely and it’s clear that COVID-19 is an increasing concern around the country, with additional cases being reported in Wisconsin.

“We are not yet canceling our upcoming events, but we are continuing to evaluate the situation. We understand some supporters may prefer to avoid crowds and encourage them to continue supporting the campaign through our online organizing tools at jillforjustice.com and through other methods.

“I want to especially thank the healthcare professionals and first responders who are dealing with this virus. I encourage everyone to pay close attention to them and follow their recommendations.”
