[Okauchee, WI] – Supreme Court Justice Daniel Kelly released the following statement Tuesday evening after his primary election victory:

“I am first and foremost incredibly grateful for the support our campaign has received from folks all across the state,” Justice Kelly said. “Tonight’s results prove that Wisconsinites are passionate about preserving their constitution and upholding the rule of law on their Supreme Court. This has been my commitment to my bosses – the people of Wisconsin – since I came to the court, and I am so thankful for their support. The results also demonstrate the power of our grassroots volunteers who have selflessly spent their nights and weekends engaging with voters about the importance of this race. Your support, enthusiasm, and energy has given our campaign the momentum we need — momentum that will lead us to victory on April 7th!”
