Wisconsin Right to Life PAC has endorsed Justice Dan Kelly in the race for Wisconsin Supreme Court justice.

“Wisconsin Right to Life is supporting the candidate who will stay true to the rule of law. Justice Kelly has a proven judicial philosophy. He will interpret the law as written and not attempt to create law from the bench. When our pro-life laws are challenged in the courts, we want to ensure that the justices on our highest court are not working as social justice warriors or attempting to push personal agendas.

“Over his tenure on the Wisconsin Supreme Court, Justice Kelly has demonstrated his loyalty to the constitution and judicial precedent. We are excited to endorse him as he seeks a 10 year term on our state’s highest court,” shared Kristen Nupson, Wisconsin Right to Life PAC Director.

The non-partisan primary election will be on February 18th; the general election will be held April 7th.
