

Milwaukee and Dane county clerks urge voters to use process negating ID requirement

Posted on Thursday, Mar 26, 2020

In the latest Midday podcast, Stephanie Hoff and Pat Poblete cover the “indefinitely confined” guidance issued by clerks in Wisconsin’s two largest counties. The Milwaukee and Dane county clerks told voters requesting an absentee ballot that have trouble presenting a voter ID to indicate they are indefinitely confined, which negates the requirement.
