Milwaukee.

Join ManpowerGroup Chairman & CEO Jonas Prising for a fast-paced review of trends impacting the Future of Work and practical takeaways from the World Economic Forum Annual meeting in Davos, Switzerland last month. Jonas will share key challenges on CEO's minds as well as insights from ManpowerGroup's latest global research on Talent Shortage and What Workers Want with data from 40,000 employers and 14,000 workers across 15 countries. As the pace of disruption accelerates, helping people adapt for future jobs and companies become creators of talent has never been more important. Jonas will outline why skills are the passport to growth and resilience for organizations and individuals how companies can create a culture of learning and build talent.

Rotary meetings are open to members, invited guests and media.
