

National Task Force on Election Crises: Discusses Wisconsin's presidential election

Posted on Friday, Nov 13, 2020

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Today, the National Task Force on Election Crises held a briefing on Wisconsin's presidential election and certification process. A recording of the briefing is available here.

Task Force experts Jennifer Morrell, Partner, Elections Group, and Adav Noti, Senior Director for Trial Litigation & Chief of Staff, Campaign Legal Center, were joined by guest expert Barry Burden, Professor of Political Science, University of Wisconsin-Madison, to offer insights on key questions surrounding Wisconsin's election including:

- How can we grade and assess the administration of the 2020 election in Wisconsin and around the country?
- What happens now in terms of the Electoral College process?
- What influence do the presidential candidates and other outside actors have over the process moving forward?
- What is the state of play for a recount and ongoing litigation around the presidential election?

See the Task Force's report on the 2020 election and guide to the transition period, as well as additional resources.

As always, please reach out if you'd like to connect with any of our Task Force experts.