

Order the 2020 WisPolitics.com Directory & Almanac now

Posted on Tuesday, Jan 21, 2020

This year could be the biggest ever in the history of Wisconsin politics — and WisPolitics.com.

WisPolitics.com launched 20 years ago. A lot has happened in 20 years, changing Wisconsin politics in big ways. Two of the biggest players — Tommy Thompson and Russ Feingold — are recognized as the most influential “WisPoliticos” of the past two decades.

This 20th anniversary comes in a year that will see an important presidential primary, the first major party national convention and a general election that could determine the next president.

Examine the political landscape and see changes in Gov. Tony Evers’ cabinet and the Legislature by buying the new 2020 WisPolitics.com Directory & Almanac.

This glossy, 20-page booklet will be an essential item throughout the year.

The publication includes photos and contact information for members of the Assembly, the state Senate, legislative leadership, and the Joint Finance Committee, plus the Evers’ administration and Wisconsin members of Congress.

Online payment can be made now for orders of up to 15 Directories. Copies ordered online are $9.00 apiece; that price includes shipping.

Please enter “Directory” and a number from 1 to 15 in the “purpose of payment” box, designating how many copies you’re buying.

If you are interested in purchasing more than 15 copies, please contact Colin D. Schmies at schmies@wispolitics.com or 608-206-0476 for bulk pricing information.
