Onalaska – Today, Brad Pfaff, candidate for Wisconsin's 32nd Senate District, announced that his campaign has qualified for the ballot in the 32nd Senate District with nearly double the number of signatures required.

"The outpouring of support shows that voters know we need new leadership in the State Senate. It's time to put divisive politics aside, come together and get to work. I'm excited to carry this momentum into the summer and fall."

"I want to thank everyone from across the 32nd district who safely collected nomination signatures for our campaign. Despite hurdles this year due to COVID-19, volunteers from across the district stepped up in a big way."

Brad was raised on a dairy farm in northern La Crosse County and has dedicated his career to Wisconsin farmers and rural communities. The 32nd Senate District includes La Crosse, Vernon, Crawford and Monroe Counties.
