Onalaska, WI – After winning the general election in the 32nd Senate District, Senator-elect Brad Pfaff (D-Onalaska) released the following statement:

“I am honored by the outpouring of support from residents in every corner of the 32nd Senate District. From the moment I announced my candidacy, it was clear that families shared my concerns about the future of our state and the partisan divisions that have paralyzed our Legislature.

“Today is a new day, and I’m eager to bring together families and communities so we can refocus on our shared values and overcome the challenges facing our state. I look forward to being sworn in on January 4th and working to defeat this pandemic, expand access to health care, strengthen our schools and expand economic opportunities.”

Brad was raised on a dairy farm in northern La Crosse County and has dedicated his career to Wisconsin farmers and rural communities. The 32nd Senate District includes La Crosse, Vernon, Crawford and Monroe Counties.
