GLENDALE - Neal Plotkin, candidate for the Wisconsin State Senate, District 8, today announced the endorsement for his campaign by Wisconsin Lieutenant Governor Mandela Barnes:

Barnes stated, "Neal is a kind and compassionate leader who I know will finally put people over divisive partisan politics for those in his community. He is a champion of affordable healthcare, quality public education, and fair representation for all Wisconsinites. From one Marshall High School graduate to another, I fully endorse Neal Plotkin in the race for Wisconsin's 8th Senate District, and I look forward to working with him to make lasting changes in our state."

Plotkin stated, "I'm deeply honored to have earned the trust and support of Lieutenant Governor Mandela Barnes. As one of the state's top elected officials and party leaders, it sends a powerful message that our campaign is strong and ready to win this election in November. Mandela is a committed leader for our collective future and I look forward to being a part of helping him move our state forward for years to come."
