

Region's top doctor says more young people affected by COVID-19

Posted on Monday, Jul 6, 2020

Today's Midday podcast covers the rising COVID-19 cases in Wisconsin that more young people are getting sick from, and a Milwaukee alderwoman said members of the city's Common Council will consider a face mask mandate at a meeting later this week.