Madison, WI—Rep. Cody Horlacher (R-Mukwonago) issued the following statement after the Wisconsin Assembly Majority Caucus election today:

“I ran for Majority Leader to fundamentally transform this Republican caucus. While I was not successful in my bid, I will continue to fight to transform our caucus and support the hardworking folks of the 33rd Assembly District and Wisconsin. I believe that we need to fundamentally address the issues that are important to Wisconsinites and stand strong against the unlawful actions of Governor Tony Evers. I look forward to continuing to represent my constituents and transform our Republican way of doing things.”
