Pewaukee — Today State Representative Adam Neylon (R-Pewaukee) issued the following statement in response to the Wisconsin Elections Commission voting to misappropriate millions of tax dollars on election:

“If Wisconsin is going to spend millions more tax dollars on the election, which is what the Elections Commission voted to do yesterday, it should be used to ensure election integrity and voter safety at the polls. This move by the Elections Commission will reverse the steps we have taken to bolster election integrity, at the taxpayers’ expense.”
