Pewaukee — Today State Representative Adam Neylon (R-Pewaukee) issued the following statement in response to Governor Evers' Department of Health Services extending the Safer at Home Emergency Order:

"I completely disagree with Governor Evers' decision to extend his Safer at Home Emergency Order. Not only is it bad policy, it infringes on our rights as private citizens. My office is looking into the Constitutionality of the Governor's actions. We should be looking at ways to reopen our economy regionally and by sector, in conjunction with an overarching plan to maintain public safety. I will do everything within my power to push back on Governor Evers' latest power grab."
