Madison–State Representative John Nygren (R-Marinette) released the following statement regarding appointments to the Assembly Committee on Finance:

“Mark is an excellent choice as Co-Chair and will continue the Assembly’s strong record of responsible budgeting and prioritizing taxpayers,” said Rep. Nygren. “Mark has played an important role in the last two budgets and his experience will continue to benefit the Finance Committee as he takes on this new role.”

“I have enjoyed working with the entire Assembly Finance Committee team and the unique qualifications each members brings to the table. Vice-Chair Loudenberg and Representatives Mike Rohrkaste, Terry Katsma and Shannon Zimmerman are strong members that will help Rep. Born in his transition and as the Committee begins its work on the next state budget.”
