

Schachtner in TV ad promises to 'always put western Wisconsin first'

Posted on Thursday, Oct 8, 2020

Sen. Patty Schachtner, D-Somerset, is up with her first TV ad of the 10th SD race.

According to Advertising Analytics, she's reserved a combined $12,525 on cable and radio.

State Rep. Rob Stafsholt, R-New Richmond, and the groups backing him have reserved $870,250 between the primary and Election Day.

In her new TV ad, the narrator says Schachtner has "always put western Wisconsin first" and supported expanding BadgerCare, while Stafsholt wanted to cut $500 million from the program.

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

"Patty knows our health care is not a partisan issue. She'll keep putting western Wisconsin first, not her political party," the narrator says.