NEW RICHMOND, WI...State Representative Rob Stafsholt (R-New Richmond) announced the endorsement of Governor Scott Walker in his race for Wisconsin's 10th Senate District.

"Rob Stafsholt is a tested leader who has a proven track record of fighting for northwestern Wisconsin," said Governor Walker. "He is a common sense conservative who looks out for the hard-working taxpayers. I am happy to endorse Rob for the State Senate."

Representative Stafsholt was elected to the State Assembly in 2016 and continues to serve Wisconsin's 29th Assembly District.

"I am truly honored to earn the endorsement of Governor Scott Walker who led Wisconsin's conservative comeback," said Stafsholt. "It was an honor to stand alongside Governor Walker as we worked on key policy initiatives that strengthened Northwestern Wisconsin." "I will continue to fight for these types of reforms, which create economic development opportunities, protect property rights, lower the tax burden on our hard-working friends and neighbors, and protect our liberties and shared values," concluded Stafsholt.

The 10th State Senate District consists of parts of Burnett, Dunn, Pierce, Polk and St. Croix Counties.
