(Madison)...State Senator Kathy Bernier (R-Lake Hallie) issued the following statement regarding an upcoming joint hearing by the Senate Committee on Elections, Ethics and Rural issues and the Assembly Committee on Campaigns and Elections, scheduled for December 11th:

“After every major election, I believe that we should review practices and processes and that is especially important after the most recent vote. I look forward to holding this joint hearing by the Senate and Assembly Elections Committees to discuss election challenges and address concerns about its integrity.”
