Madison – Wisconsin Senate Assistant Minority Leader Janet Bewley released the following statement regarding Majority Leader Scott Fitzgerald's attempt to do an end run around Governor Evers:

““While the Governor has been working tirelessly day in and day out to protect the people of the great state of Wisconsin during this crisis, Senator Fitzgerald's only real accomplishment ensured that thousands of Wisconsinites would have to put their very lives at risk in order to exercise their constitutional right to vote. He talks about wanting to “keep working with the minority party.” But I suspect his real goal in this is to drive a wedge between the Democrats in the legislature and the Governor. I have news for Senator Fitzgerald, it's not going to work.”
