[Madison, WI] — Today, Senate Majority Leader Scott Fitzgerald wrapped up individual phone calls with Rick Schlesinger of the Milwaukee Brewers, Peter Feigin of the Milwaukee Bucks, and Mark Murphy of the Green Bay Packers for updates on how the COVID-19 pandemic has affected their individual teams and what assistance from Wisconsin would be helpful moving forward.

“I’m continuing to seek input from groups like Wisconsin’s professional sports teams on how the state can be helpful in their return to play,” said Senator Fitzgerald. “I’ve said previously that there are major issues coming at us fast in the near future when it comes to large group gatherings. I’ll continue to keep the lines of communication open with our private-sector partners and the governor as the state and federal government continue to react to COVID-19.”

Senate Majority Leader Scott Fitzgerald (R-Juneau) represents the 13th Senate District, which covers portions of Dodge, Jefferson, Waukesha, Washington, Dane, and Columbia counties.
