[Madison, WI] — Wisconsin Senate Majority Leader Scott Fitzgerald released the following statement regarding Governor Evers' veto comments:

"For almost a month we have been at work on a bill that includes essential provisions dealing with everything from Medicaid to the first week of unemployment. Millions of relief dollars are at stake for Wisconsin. Suggesting he'll veto the full bill publicly, while privately we're still negotiating, is irresponsible. We'll keep working with the minority party to put together a bill that can hopefully pass soon with bipartisan support."
