LA CROSSE, WI – Outgoing State Senator Jennifer Shilling (D-La Crosse) released the following statement endorsing Brad Pfaff for the 32nd State Senate District:

“Brad has deep family roots here in western Wisconsin and folks know he’s not afraid to take on the political establishment and special interests. He understands the importance of quality health care, good schools, and safe roads. Amid the ongoing farm crisis, Brad has been a trusted and outspoken advocate for family farmers by urging action on mental health assistance, rural broadband access, and sustainable land management practices.

“I’ve known Brad for over 30 years and can attest to his energy, enthusiasm, and commitment to western Wisconsin. Brad has been deeply involved in our community and knows that the only way to move our state forward is by rolling up your sleeves and working together. I am thrilled to endorse Brad Pfaff because I know that he’ll work hard to level the playing field and fight for our shared values in the State Senate.”

Jennifer Shilling currently represents the 32nd Senate District, which covers La Crosse, Vernon, Crawford and Monroe counties.
