“I’m so excited! Along with taxpayers throughout southeastern Wisconsin, I could not be happier! We’ve been waiting for this day for 23 years. I want to thank the District Board for their vote today to end the Miller Park tax, and the Department of Revenue for their work allowing the tax to go away at the end of the month. It can’t and won’t be used for any other purpose. It’s gone. Hallelujah! Taxpayers more than held up their end of the bargain. Now we can focus on what’s happening on the field, not who is paying for it. Go Crew and Play Ball!”
